

Sit Stay REWARD

Training is vital to your long-term relationship with your canine companion. It can enrich your pet experience by minimizing bad behavior and creating much-needed boundaries for your dog – by and large, they want more than anything to please you!

To aid you in this important aspect of pet parenting, Dr. Jane has formulated a recipe made especially to hold your dog's attention during training sessions, and to enhance the effectiveness of your instruction.

Life's Abundance® Tasty Rewards Nutritional Training Treats are tasty jerky treats made with New Zealand lamb and chicken to create a savory treat that will definitely get your dog's attention. With a chewy texture, these bite-sized strips are made to help you successfully train your dog. Not only are they yummy, these mouthwatering morsels are healthy and nutritious.

Best of all, they are perfectly sized for carrying in a pouch, or your pocket, during training sessions. And, like all of our foods, supplements and treats, you'll find no artificial colors or artificial flavors.

Positive reinforcement has never tasted so good. With Tasty Rewards, discipline can be delicious!
